Packages and proposals of great quality rural tourism, in the land of Romagna

The contribution of the Wine and Dine Routes of Romagna to build integrated tourist proposals: 21 intriguing packages present the charm of Romagna with its tourist and gastronomic excellences.

Romagna Terra del Sangiovese together with the four Wine and Dine Routes of Romagna (Imola, Faenza-Ravenna, Forlì-Cesena and Rimini) have developed several packages of the entire area of Romagna to promote themselves on Italy and on foreign markets.

The touristic offers created by the network of Wine and Dine Routes link Romagna's soul and rural quality hail through Artusi's culinary experience to the most excellent touristic realities, represented by Romagna cities and villages, and also to the values and travel motivation (nature, history, art, spa).

Moreover we focus the foreigner tourist interest not only to Pellegrino Artusi, but also to other characters linked to Romagna because they are universally known, like Dante Alighieri, Julius Cesar and Rubicon River, Federico Fellini and Leonardo da Vinci.

THE DIVINE COMEDY OF DANTE AS TRAVEL GUIDE TO DISCOVER UNFAMILIAR PLACES AND TASTE OF ROMAGNA

Dante died in Ravenna in 1321, welcomed by the family of Polenta, and is buried here. In the cantica dedicated to the fraudulent counselors, the great poet, builds a fresco of the cities of the region: Forlì, Rimini, Cesena, Faenza and Imola. Then stand out in all his work people and places that have made this area famous: Paolo and Francesca, unfortunate lovers (Canto V, Hell) whose clandestine relationship is still disputed by the fortresses of Rimini, Santarchangelo and Gradara; the hated Malatesta dynasty left, in spite of their reputation as tyrants, masterpieces of art as the Malatesta Library of Cesena and the Malatesta Temple in Rimini.

With Dante Alighieri you will make a journey between the cities of Romagna enjoying the flavors and aromas of culinary history and its excellences.

"ALEA IACTA EST!"

Titus Livius wrote in the January 10, 49 BC: "... at the head of five thousand men and three hundred horse, Caesar crossed the Rubicon river and moves against the universe ...". The "story" of the acts of Caesar in Romagna is visible through the references in the area: those of Roman domination ("Land of Rome"), or ruins, monuments and museums in Rimini, Savignano, Sarsina, Forlimpopoli and also the centuriation in Romagna farmland. An intriguing and historic travel across the deep rural Romagna that is intensified discovering the typical agribusiness products and by the ability to transform them into the traditional cooking.

LEONARDO DA VINCI IN ROMAGNA: HISTORY, CULTURE, GASTRONOMY

The great Leonardo da Vinci in 1502 made a journey of several months in Romagna where lived and worked in five cities (Rimini, Cesena, Cesenatico, Faenza and Imola): a great cultural and technical effort on the study of the fortifications which brought him to define the map of Imola, the design of the harbor of Cesenatico and the physical map of the Romagna. Leonardo annotated in a small notebook (now cataloged as Code L at the Library Institut de France in Paris) sketches, ideas, inventions, thoughts, opinions and even emotions.

The sketch in which he designed as the peasants of Romagna withered grapes to preserve it during the winter, is now adopted as the logo by The Wine and Dine Route of Forl-Cesena...

GIUSEPPE GARIBALDI: THE "HERO OF TWO WORLDS"

After the fall of the Roman Republic in Rome (1849) begins the march of General Giuseppe Garibaldi towards northern Italy, followed by Austrian troops. Sailing from the port of Cesenatico to Venice, Garibaldi and his men are intercepted at the height of Comacchio. Thus begins an adventurous escape through the valleys of Ravenna (and the death of his wife Anita) and then for the countryside and the hills of Romagna.

Here is the "Route of Garibaldi", the bold wander for two weeks until the Grand Duchy of Tuscany: the salvation of the General was due thanks to the enthusiastic help of local people, farmers and patriots, as in the legendary priest Don Giovanni Verità in Modigliana...
